"CHIMES"
PFEIFFER COLLEGE YEARBOOK

To the Faculty, Staff, and Students:

I really do not know what to say about this yearbook. I cannot say that I am proud of it, but I hope that everyone will try to understand why this yearbook is the way it is.

We faced many problems this year. I was not approved as editor until late in the second semester. At this time, nothing had been done, there was no acting staff, and the Chimes was $5,000 in debt. At one time, we discussed not having a yearbook at all and starting fresh in 1982. We felt, however, that the seniors deserved something, so, after much discussion with Bernie Lessard, our representative, Dr. Echols and Dean Boone, we decided to have a supplement — a smaller book with fewer pages. I am happy to say, that by having this year's supplemental issue, the Chimes will be out of debt and starting fresh next year.

At this time, I would like to extend my sincere apologies to the faculty and staff that were excluded from this book because of space. You are terrific people and you are greatly appreciated. I would also like to apologize to any student who had a major accomplishment and was excluded from the book.

I would now like to thank my "overnight" staff, to whom I am forever in debt — Darryll Glick, Craig Estep, Sarah Sexton, and Linda Jones. Without these people I would probably still be working. I would like to give a special thanks to Jeff DeBoy, Jan Kever, Al Searles, and Janine Dorton for listening to me complain and for their constant support. I also thank Dean Boone, Dr. Echols, and Bernie for their patient guidance and understanding. My deepest gratitude goes to Rich Hemmer for his devoted service no matter what went wrong, and everything usually did.

Thank you all for your understanding.

Donna Ingram
Chimes Editor 1981
